

COMMUNICATION ARTS FEST & REAL WORLD FAIR 2019

July 18, 5:30–8:00pm
County Government Center, Elkhorn

This event is open to all Walworth County 4-H members, regardless of what projects you've enrolled in. Only youth enrolled in the communications and real world fair projects will be eligible for premium money.

General Guidelines:

- Judging for all divisions will be face-to-face.
- A maximum of three entries are allowed in Divisions D-F.
- A laptop will be available at judging upon request.
- Entries that do not meet the entry requirements or are entered in the wrong class will be judged and will receive a ribbon. However, these entries will not be ineligible for fair premium money and special awards.
- If you sign up, plan to show up. "No shows" cause major scheduling conflicts at this event.
- Speeches, poems, etc. prepared for school, forensics, FFA, etc., are eligible for entry.
- All entries must be your work and cannot have been presented at a previous Communication Arts Fest/Real World Fair.

Awards: Each participant will receive a blue, red or white ribbon in his/her class. Grand and reserve champion honors will be selected from eligible project members in all divisions.

Communications
Consumer Savvy
Creative Writing
Entrepreneurship
Speaking

If you are in one of the projects above, this is the PRE-FAIR judging experience for your project area. Compete now. Then, register for the corresponding classes at the Walworth County Fair to receive your exhibit premium money and awards.
