What makes Flamethrowers 4-H Club unique? Kids run the club, learn Robert's Rules and learn to make choices.

One thing new families should know about Flamethrowers 4-H Club is We encourage kids to be leaders and to share. 4-H is a great experience – get involved, ask questions, don't be afraid to try.

While at a club meeting, some things families can expect to see or do include...see how kids run a meeting, make decisions, use Robert's Rules of Order, plan events and volunteer.

Are parents welcome at meetings? Yes! We encourage you to stay and be screened for a volunteer role.

How can parents get involved in the club? What kinds of things can they do? Help out at events.

What kinds of programs do you anticipate your club doing this year? We plan programs at our November meeting for the year. Come plan with us!
